Chapter 1 by GuitarHiro

Jeff was an ordinary chinchilla in an ordinary pet shop. Well- he was - until some crazy chick named Lisa adopted him.

He was just chinchillin in his cage when he was rudely interrupted by the "beautiful" vista of a girl's face pressed against the bars. He knew she was trouble from the moment he saw her.

She had the whole bratty teen look about her from the overtly spraytanned skin tone to the several pounds of poorly done makeup on her face. And that jacket which he hated for two reasons. One he hoped wasn't made out of his fellow chinchillas and two - seriously? Fur?- so 1980s.

"I want HIM!!" the girl screeched to an older man standing next to her and she proceeded to make several unbecoming pouty faces until the man, presumably her father, acknowledged her.

"Whatever you want, babe".

He's her boyfriend?! Jeff was mildly surprised. And also very worried. He'd dreamt of the day he'd be adopted and taken home but it had never gone quite like this.

It suddenly occurred to Jeff that Lisa, the girl who had just adopted him, was much older than Lisa. Lck.

While they were standing in line, finalizing the transaction, Lisa put one another torrent of perfume. Double ick.

He wasn't looking forward to seeing his new home. Since they hadn't bought a cage, Jeff was expecting a shoebox, if he was lucky. What he saw surprised him.
